

Prior to departing from the property on which we are performing a Home Inspection you feel our service and inspection does not allow you to make an educated decision regarding the home, not only will we refund you the cost of the home inspection; we will also pay for a separate company to perform the inspection.

This guarantee is for the Home Inspection service rendered, all other services are not covered by this guarantee (e.g. Radon, Mold). Client must be personally present during the entire inspection. The fee will be refunded to the person/party who originated the payment after a signed unsatisfied customer form is received.

Secondary inspection must be completed within seven days of our scheduled inspection. Proof of secondary inspection (i.e. inspection report) must be provided along with invoice.
